DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. In response to the Office Action mailed 1/19/2007, applicant has submitted an Amendment, filed 4/19/2007, arguing to traverse the rejections of claims 1-66.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments, arguing to traverse the rejections of independent claims 1, 17, 23, 39, 45, and 61 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claims 1-66 has been withdrawn, and the claims are allowed, for reasons given next.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-66 are allowed over the prior art of record. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Independent claims 1, 17, 23, 39, 45, and 61 are allowed because they recite an interactive voice response system (virtual agent) responding to recognized utterances from a customer communication, by using a knowledge base trained by information extracted from at least one exemplary dialogue, comprising an exchange of utterances, between a customer and a human agent.

Beck et al. do not using the stored interactions to generate a response to a customer utterance, but route the particular communication to a human agent. And, while Fratkina prompts the user for more information about a particular problem or question, its knowledge map is not populated with information generated from one or more conversations, Gorin does not use its stored dialog history to generate a response to a customer. Thus the prior art of record does not teach, singly or in obvious combination, said claimed invention.

Claims 2-16, 18-22, 24-38, 40-44, 46-60, and 62-66 are allowed because they further limit these independent claims or their parent claims.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
